BIOGRAPHY

Walker Montgomery is a country singer from Nicholasville, Kentucky. Walker's love of music comes naturally; he is the son of multi-platinum selling country music star, John Michael Montgomery, and nephew of Eddie Montgomery, of Montgomery Gentry. In addition to his family musical influences, Walker is inspired by a wide variety of musicians ranging from Randy Travis, Frank Sinatra, and Luke Bryan. Walker performs locally around the Lexington, Kentucky area, as well as fairs, festivals and other venues throughout his homestate.

Simple Town, Walker's current single, is aired regularly on local radio stations including 98.1 The Bull and 97.5 WAMZ. Over the past few years, he has had the honor of being included in Acoustic Jam 2016 and 2017 alongside other touring artists. Additionally, Walker won a University of Kentucky fan poll in 2017 allowing him to perform in concert at their season opener. Walker is looking forward to continuing his family's musical traditions and sharing his love for classic country while adding a modern influence and style.
